AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS—TWIN CITIES CHAPTER

Remember to Register for 'Midwinter Music' - Feb. 13, 2010

by Karen Flynn

A delightful half-day of enrichment and education for all Twin Cities area organists is coming soon. 'Midwinter Music' will be held on February 13, 2010, from 8:30 am to 1:00 pm at Westminster Presbyterian Church.

The event is geared for all levels of organists and church musicians, and will provide two parallel tracks of presentations and workshops. One track will highlight contemporary and global music; the other will focus on repertoire, basic hymn-playing skills, and improvisation. We are privileged to have several wonderful musicians leading these sessions.

John Ferguson, Professor of Organ and Church Music at St. Olaf College, will talk about the expanding roles of church organists and the blending of contemporary and traditional music in worship. John will also lead a second session on global organ music. He'll be followed by Dave Hagedorn, Assistant Professor of Music at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota, who teaches percussion, jazz studies and world music. Dave is going to share the wonderful world of percussion with us. This will be hands-on, too, so expect a very lively hour!

Melanie Ohnstad, Director of Music and the Arts at Westminster Presbyterian Church, will review new and favorite

Letters to the Editor

Signed Letters to the Editor are always welcome. Please send, fax or email letters to Barb Herzog.

Minnesota Public Radio encourages you to enter your classical music performance events in the MPR online calendar. In the box in the upper left corner of the MPR main page <<http://www.mpr.org>>, click on 'Events Calendar'...then follow the instructions on the calendar page to 'submit a new event'.

This information will reach an audience different from the online TCAGO or PIPE-DREAMS calendars. It's free, and it's another way to let people know about your classical music concerts.

By all means, continue to send information directly to Michael Barone too.

FREE ONLINE PROMOTION!

Gain potential additional promotional exposure for your performance event (concerts only, not services) by listing it on the Minnesota Public Radio Online Event's calendar (separate from the PIPEDREAMS calendar!). Go to <www.mpr.org>, click on 'classical' in the upper green box, scroll down and click on 'regional events' in the EVENTS panel, then click on 'submit an event' and follow the prompts. It's free, and is widely read (particularly by MPR's on-air hosts).

organ repertoire. For newer organists and those seeking a refresher, Steve Gentile, Director of Music/Organist Emeritus, Church of St. Helena, and currently Music Associate at Wayzata Community Church, will cover the basics of organ registration, including French and German registration systems and techniques for hymn playing. For those ready and willing to branch out into some new areas, David Cherwien, Cantor, Mount Olive Lutheran Church, will lead a session on incorporating improvisation into worship.

In addition to the workshops, there will be a Music Sale. Bring your donations of unneeded organ sheet music, CDs or music-related books; these will be available for sale throughout the morning.

Westminster Presbyterian Church is an excellent location for our event, with both the 85-rank Möller in the sanctuary and the beautiful new 24-rank Dobson Opus 86 in the chapel available for our sessions. You can review the specifications for both instruments in the organ database on the TCAGO web site (http://web.me.com/rgreene/Organ_Webpages/Welcome.html) Our warm thanks to Westminster for hosting us.

Dean's Column

In my Dean's Column last November I mentioned Jan Kraybill's (our Regional Councillor) recital in Independence, Missouri...I attended and WOW!!! It was wonderful. She played the same program that Catherine Crozier played 50 years ago...to the date...when the organ was dedicated. She, of course, played very well and had a large and appreciative audience. A CD is available of the program.

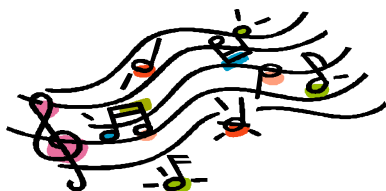

We are so fortunate in our area to have so much fantastic music available. I encourage you to attend as many programs as you possibly can. As we look ahead into February I suggest you take a look at the TCAGO web site and the Regional Calendar to see all the wonderful things that are happening. The Midwinter Music Event on Saturday, February 13 is packed with a great variety of sessions...something for everyone. On Saturday, February 20 the annual PODD will be held at the University of St. Thomas. Diana Lee Lucker and I will perform the Bach Double Harpsichord Concerto in c-minor (BWV 1060) on Sunday, February 28 at 4:00 pm, accompanied by the Wayzata Symphony Orchestra. The Beethoven Mass in C will complete the program. In March, there will be another Big Before Bach's Birthday Bash and several recitals to help celebrate his 325th birthday. Please put these dates on your calendar. Support the guild, your friends, and hear some great music. A good Goal: Attend more events in 2010.

Just a bit further down the calendar year is the National Convention in Washington, D.C., July 4-8, 2010. I don't think it should be missed.

Reminder: November 23, 2010, is the 100th Anniversary of the TCAGO. Send me ideas you have on how to celebrate this important day and year.

Now that we are into another new year you have probably started planning music for Lent and Easter. I hope you can pick and present the very best music that you can find.

Letter to the TCAGO

By Craig Windschitl

Last September, I was struggling with terrible tension and pain in my neck and back. A friend of mine told me about John Sheehan, a Certified Massage Therapist who he sees for similar physical problems.

I was somewhat apprehensive because I thought massage might not be the answer. Before the massage, John and I sat down and he asked me about the pain and discomfort I had been experiencing.

I told him about the long hours I've been putting in at the organ console, especially on Sunday mornings at the church. I described how my upper and lower back, as well as neck and shoulders resulted in painful, stiff problems, most likely from leaning over the organ for long periods of time. John told me what was wrong and shared his expertise as to how he could help me.

During the massage treatment, John kept asking me how I felt. He is professional, and his sense of humor helped me to relax. His massage office is clean, quiet and tranquil; the rates are VERY reasonable.

I was thrilled with the results because I felt tremendously better. It's truly amazing what John can do for us organists, especially those of us who hover over the console for hours and hours!!!

I strongly recommend that my fellow organ colleagues visit John Sheehan, CMT, and his business, JMS Massage Therapy. 🎵

ORGAN MUSIC SALE

Please bring organ music and CDs that you would like to donate to the TCAGO to Westminster Church on Saturday, February 13, 2010.

We are planning a sale: perhaps some will be FREE, 1/2 price or other, maybe an auction.

All music and CDs will become the property of the TCAGO and all profits will go into the Program Committee budget.

Anyone may list a position opening by writing or calling Robert Anderson, 2024 Kenwood Parkway, Minneapolis, MN 55405-2303, 612-377-4450. Positions are listed in two consecutive issues of PIPENOTES. If the position is still open, the church is asked to relist the opening. A fee of $50 is requested (with the ad running 2 months, and an additional $15 for each month following) for this service. Checks are to be made payable to: TCAGO (Twin Cities Chapter-American Guild of Organists). Calls will be returned by the next business day.

For those who are looking for positions, there are often several weeks between the time a position is open and the date it is published in PIPENOTES. From time to time a congregation is in immediate need. Those of you who would like to have your name suggested to a congregation can leave your name and number with Robert Anderson. His function will be to give a congregation a list of available candidates.

Sweet Honey In The Rock to join VocalEssence Chorus in 20th annual WITNESS concert

By Laura Holst

Every year since 1991 Philip Brunelle and VocalEssence have honored the choral music of African American composers in the yearly WITNESS concert. The 20th annual WITNESS performance will be a very special celebration as the VocalEssence Chorus is joined by the acclaimed women's vocal ensemble Sweet Honey In The Rock®. The concert takes place on Sunday, February 14, 2010 (4 pm) at Ordway Center for the Performing Arts in St. Paul. Classical Minnesota Public Radio's John Birge will host a Pre-Concert Conversation at 3 pm with composer Ysaye Barnwell, a member of Sweet Honey In The Rock.

Tickets for WITNESS are $20-$40 (Service charges apply. Student tickets are half-price and group discounts are available.) For tickets and information, call 651-224-4222 or visit www.vocalescence.org/witness-2010.

WITNESS: Sweet Honey In The Rock

Ordway Center for the Performing Arts, St. Paul
Pre-Concert Conversation at 3 pm with John Birge and guest Ysaye Barnwell

Tickets: $20, $30, $40 (Service charges apply. Student tickets are half price. Group discounts are available.)

To order, call 651-224-4222 or purchase at www.ordway.org

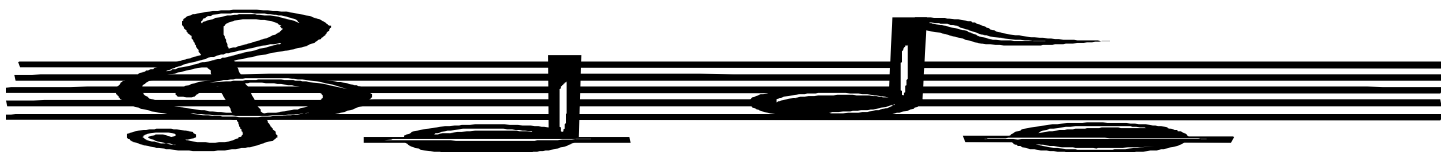

The first half of the WITNESS concert will feature Sweet Honey In The Rock performing some of their signature a cappella arrangements, followed by the 100-voice VocalEssence Chorus singing "Truth Pressed to Earth Shall Rise" by Sweet Honey's own Ysaye Barnwell, "Folks, I'm Telling You" by Twin Cities composer Elizabeth Alexander, and "Give Me Your Hand" by John Work III.

The second half of the concert, created by Ysaye Barnwell and Philip Brunelle, will incorporate the theme of activism in labor, civil rights and peace. The groups will sing union songs such as "Step By Step," "More than a Paycheck," and Philip Brunelle's arrangement of "Solidarity Forever." The ensembles will perform a civil rights medley culminating in Rosephanye Powell's "I Dream A World."

Representing the theme of peace, the VocalEssence Chorus will sing a setting of Dag Hammarskjöld's words, "Thou Who Art Over Us," and Sweet Honey will present "Let There Be Peace" and "Study War No More." The finale (involving the audience) will be a setting of "This Little Light of Mine."

Signing for the hearing-impaired has long been an important part of Sweet Honey's concerts. For the first time at any VocalEssence concert, all the music will be sign language interpreted. ♫

Pipe Organ Discovery Day, Feb. 20, 2010 at University of St. Thomas

By Phil Asgian

Pipe Organ Discovery Day provides students with previous piano or organ experience an opportunity to learn more about the instrument and very importantly to expand their knowledge with "hands-on" experience on a variety of instruments. Participants in this year's PODD will play instruments by Kney, Noack, Casavant and Dobson/Schantz.

In addition to hands-on experience for students, Michael Barone, host of MPR's Pipedreams program and organ builder Charles Hendrickson will present a program that highlights unique features of different styles of organ building.

The program runs from 9:30 AM to 3:00 PM and starts at the St. Thomas Aquinas Chapel at the St. Paul campus of the University of St. Thomas located at the intersection of Cleveland and Ashland Avenues in St. Paul, just north of Summit Avenue.

Pipe Organ Discovery Day is an outreach program of the TCAGO and is free to participants. Young artists and their parents as well, are encouraged to attend. Pizza lunch is included. Registration and a full schedule of events for the day can be found at the TCAGO web site at www.tcago.org - scroll down to the February events on the home page and follow the links.

If you have questions, please contact Phil Asgian at 651.293.9115 or philasgian@gmail.com. 🎵

TCAGO Archive News “Added Inventory”

Jerry Bonstrom, Archivist

In September, I received what amounted to a large, full box of items from Bill Stump. As the general chairman of the 2008 National AGO Convention, Bill had detailed records:

- AGO National policies
- Budget summaries (break-even and optimistic)
- Committee information and reports
- Composer commissions
- Correspondence
- Daily schedules
- Evaluation forms and results
- Minutes of various committees
- Steering Committee minutes, final reports and wrap up

After inventorying the box, I delivered it to the Minnesota History Center in early December. That's the permanent home for most of our Archives. I say “most” because they're fussy about what Minnesota interest is and what national interest is. In mid-December, a courier delivered to my address a half-empty box of what the History Center didn't want of the '08 convention. I'll check with the TCAGO Board about what to keep, but may be delivering the remainder to Westminster Presbyterian Church where our “floating” collection resides.

In December, I met with Duane Swanson—curator of manuscripts at the History Center—and asked when our archives delivered from 2003–2009 would be inventoried and cataloged. (I've been asking that question for five years.) Cataloging is pending but he gave me a copy of what the cataloged additions will be and how it will look online. There's an increase of two more boxes. The 2008 AGO Convention program brochure has been cataloged as a book.

It's encouraging to know that soon we'll be able to see the additions online. Here's the current URL: <http://www.mnhs.org/library/findaids/00017.xml>. 🎵

Organ Tour Videos on YouTube

By Ruth Russell Peet

James Biery has added a series of videos to YouTube; they can be watched by going to the YouTube site and searching for "Schalmei4". Jim has produced a series of videos that tour the organ at the Cathedral of Saint Paul, detailing the need for the organ restoration which will be done by Quimby Pipe Organs. Jim has also posted a series of videos recorded at Rockefeller Chapel at the University of Chicago; these videos feature Marilyn Biery performing music by Minneapolis composer David Evan Thomas and Portland, Maine composer Harold Stover. All the production work for the videos was done by Laura Biery, second-year student at the University of Chicago. ♪

VocalEssence explores lesser-known music of Copland

By Laura Holst

Considered one of the most respected American composers of all time, most listeners know little of Aaron Copland's music beyond "Appalachian Spring" and "Fanfare for the Common Man." Under the direction of Philip Brunelle, the VocalEssence Chorus & Ensemble Singers, joined by special guests, the James Sewell Ballet and Eastview High School Concert Choir, will explore some of Copland's lesser-known works in a performance titled Undiscovered Copland on Saturday, March 13, 2010 (8 pm) at Ted Mann Concert Hall in Minneapolis. Classical Minnesota Public Radio's John Birge will host a Pre-Concert Conversation at 7 pm with guest artist James Sewell.

Tickets for Undiscovered Copland are $20-$40 (Service charges apply. Student tickets are half-price and group discounts are available.) For tickets and information, call 612-371-5656 or visit www.vocalescence.org.

Premiered in 1937 and rarely performed, the story of Copland's "play-opera" The Second Hurricane remains timeless today. A group of high school students volunteer to help with relief efforts in the aftermath of a devastating hurricane. They are dropped off with a cache of supplies in the midst of a flooded area even as a second hurricane is forming. As the unexpected storm strikes and the water rises, the young peoples' courage is tested. The Eastview High School Concert Choir of Apple Valley will join the VocalEssence Ensemble Singers for a semi-staged version of the opera, directed by Jon Cranney.

Following intermission, the James Sewell Ballet will perform original choreography to Copland's In the Beginning, accompanied by VocalEssence and mezzo soprano soloist Adriana Zabala. In the Beginning was performed on the inaugural 1969-1970 season of VocalEssence (then known as the Plymouth Music Series) with composer Aaron Copland conducting.

Original choreography will also accompany the beloved melodies of Copland's Old American Songs, including the familiar favorites "Simple Gifts" and "Shall We Gather at The River."

The performance will culminate with the artistic forces — the VocalEssence and Eastview High School Choruses, James Sewell Ballet, and orchestra — joining together to perform Copland's triumphant "The Promise of Living" from the 1952 opera The Tender Land. ♪
